VOL. CXXXVI.—No. 118. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, MONDAY, MAY 17, 1920. PRICE TWO CENTS

MAKE REPORT ON VIRGINIA WOMEN

They Are Said to Work on Ten-Hour Basis in This State

HEALTH IS IGNORED

Lack of Wash Rooms, Luncheon Facilities, etc., Bureau Reports—Urges Ablishment of Long Workday

Washington, May 17.—Reporting upon a survey, conducted by request of Governor Westmoreland Davis as to hours and conditions of work of women in industry in the State of Virginia, the Women's Bureau of the United States Labor Department, made public yesterday its findings and recommendations on the subject.

The survey was conducted in cooperation with the State Bureau of Labor and Industrial Statistics, the field covered including plants in Richmond, Petersburg, Danville, South Boston, Lynchburg, Bedford, Charlottesville, Staunton, Alexandria, Norfolk, Roanoke, Buena Vista, Culpeper Salem, Martinsville and Fielddale.

Thousands of women working in tobacco plants or sorting peanuts in Virginia factories, the report states, have no facilities for washing, no place to eat their lunch except in dusty workrooms, and when they sit down at all, have only stools or boxes for seats, although they usually work ten hours a day. Nearly half the women in Virginia work ten hours a day, and over fifty-four hours a week, it was found. Most of the factories were found to have very unsatisfactory sanitary conditions, in many cases the women having no place to wash, although often they were working on food products where cleanliness was necessary. One of the reasons for the high labor turnover in Virginia was said to be the unsatisfactory conditions in the factories, which lead the women to go from one place of employment to another, in search of pleasanter surroundings.

SPORTS

The Dreadnaught A. C. made it seven straight wins yesterday on the High School Grounds, defeating the Fort Washington soldiers by the score of 10 to 0. Pitcher Forsman again showed Alexandria fans what they may expect from him this year. The fine work on the pitching mound shown by this young man, and the general all around interest he shows in the welfare of the club, when he has been assigned to deliver the goods for the home team, bids fair to endear himself with the Dreadnaught's supporters.

Jimmy Quayle the Dreadnaught's speed king, was in the game, replacing Cornell who has not been well during the week. Jimmy scored 2 hits as many times at bat.

Quayle and Forsman are in pink of condition and will make any teams hustle to beat them, as has been shown in the past with a fast team behind them. Yesterday's game was very interesting for the first 6 innings until the hits began to sing from the Big D bats. Forsman had 18 strikeouts and allowed 4 scattered hits.

The big surprise came in the 8th inning, we will not mention this surprise, but direct you to "Ask Mr. Dreifds" the Dreadnaught's first sacker. Deavers, Hayden, Giles and Steele featured with their hitting.

In an interesting and well-played game on the North Alfred street grounds yesterday the Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team defeated the Register's Office, Treasury Department, of Washington, by a 9 to 4 score

"Speedking" Jones took things easy, except at times when the enemy threatened to go over the top, and then he turned lose his rapid-fire battery on them and they went out in one, two, three order. "Teddy" Schaeffer, the lithe and brainy catcher, played well at all times and had the Registers hugging the bases like they would their sweethearts.

Peverell, first base; Babe Payne, second base; Frank Owens, third base; Jim Sweeey, short stop; Jimmy Alexander, left field; Jimmy Strunkle, center field and Joe Owens, right filed, was the winning combination used by the Cardinals. Joe Owens proved that he could "come back" by making three clean hits out of four times at bat.

"Biddy" Clatterback, who pitched for the Registers, was in fine trim and had the Cardinals guessing trying to solve his delivery. Hurney, the take-them-in man behind the bat was as active as a flea on a tomcat.

The running catch of Jones' long fly to center field made by Patterson was one of the most difficult feats in left hand catches ever seen in this city and he was applauded for his act by the large crowd present.

Jim Sweeney, of the Cardinals, also received praises galore for making a one-hand catch of a hard hit ball.

CARRANZA FLEES BEFORE REBELS

Members of His Cabinet Reported to Have Been Captured

CHIEF IN MOUNTAINS

Two Thousand Loyal Troops Captured, 24 Trains, 4 Pieces of Artillery, 200 Machine Guns, etc.

Mexico City, May 17.—Carranza is fleeing into the mountains of Vera Cruz by way of Petrote, and the revolutionists have captured 2,000 prisoners, with 24 trains, four pieces of artillery, 200 machine guns, a great quantity of ammunition and gold and silver bars, one airplane and many automobiles, according to a report from Gen. Guadalupe Sanchez, given out at Obregon headquarters.

Fighting began at 10 a. m., Friday in the vicinity of Riconada. After three hours' heavy engagement Carranza and the leading members of his party abandoned their trains and fled in automobiles, escorted by 500 cavalry. He carried off from the trains all minted coins. The rebel cavalry is pursuing Carranza.

Before their flight the Carranzistas set fire to the trains, but the flames were extinguished by revolutionists, who rescued several wounded occupants of the coaches. These included Gen. Augustin Millan, who had been left seriously wounded in a sleeping car.

Gen. Canido Aguilar, son in law of Venustiano Carranza, has been captured at Jalapilla, state of Vera Cruz, it was announced officially Saturday night.

Gen. Pablo Gonzalez announced formally and definitely his retirement from the Mexican presidential race in a manifesto issued Saturday evening.

Gen. Alvaro Obregon is the only remaining presidential candidate unless Ygnacio Bonillas should return to Mexico, which is considered improbable.

Gonzalez's action is accepted as meaning the elimination of any chance of friction between himself and Obregon, the two chief military leaders of the liberal revolutionary party.

El Paso, May 17.—All of the members of Carranza's cabinet have been captured and sent to Mexico City, according to a message said to have been received yesterday by revolutionary agents here from Gen. Alvaro Obregon, who at present is in Mexico City.

Carranza himself is said to have escaped to the mountains on horseback.

May Procession

Impressive Exercises Held Yesterday At St. Mary's Church

Cludless blue skies, warm sunshine and air fragrant with the blossoms of spring made Sunday an ideal setting for the annual May procession of St. May's Church.

The children assembled in the Academy garden at 3 o'clock and formed their ranks for the procession. They made a beautiful picture: the girls from the tinniest-lot i the minors class to the finished senior all in spotless white with red saches across shoulder The procession passed through the Academy mai hall out on Prince street headed by Louis Whitestone, crossbearer, who was accompanied by 20 other acolytes wearingg red cassocks and lace supplices. These were followed by 42 members of the Boys' Branch of the Eucharistic League led by Paul Horgan.

The third section was made up of the Sodality of the Children of Mary whose beautiful banner was carried by William DeVaughan. Ninety members, including the Sodality at the Academy, which is exclusively for the boarders, were in line, wearing the blue ribbon and medal of their patroness.

The aspirants or candidates and membership in the Sodality formed the next division. A large floral cross carried by Miss Lillian Fannan, assisted by four ribbon bearers, marked their section.

"An Angel," Louise Rupp, two year sold, led the 50 girls who were to receive the bade of the Children of Mary.

The May Queen, Miss Aline Dyson, was attended by four little girls, carrying lilies. These were followed by large girls who formed a guard of honor, and carried ribbon streamers, decorated with flowers. The crown bearer was Mary Beale.

On reaching the church, the May hymns were sung and the children marched around the church before taking their places. The Blessed Virgin's altar was a mass of lilies and lights. Before Aline Dyson heard the act of consecration. The Rev. Wm. Winston invested fifty new members with the insignia of the sodality.

The first communion class received the Scapular of Mount Carmel. Cecelia Michals made the promises for for two received sodalists. Aline Dyson read the act of consecration. A short instruction and benediciton of the Bessed Sacrament by Father Winston closed the ceremonies.

JEREMIAH MOORE TABLET UNVEILED

Large Gathering at First Baptist Church Last Night

WAS FOUNDED IN 1803

Address By Rev. Dr. McGlothlin—Miss Florence K. Berryman Pulls Cord—Representative Moore Attends.

A most significant and impressive congregation gathered at the First Baptist Church last evening and witnessed the unveiling of a tablet to the memory of one of the heroes in the contest for religious liberty in America, Jeremiah Moore. Many had to be turned away from the doors. Rev. Dr. W. J. McGlothlin, of South Carolina delivered an address that will be placed in a pamphlet form for distribution in the Southern Baptist Convention.

A special committee had been appointed by Rev. Dr. J. B. Gambrell, president, to bring the felicitations of the convention. Rev. Dr. B. C. Henicy, assistant general director of the 75 million Baptist campaign, spoke of the remarkable campaign just closed. Dr. L. J. Haley, of Texas, chairman on order of business of the convention, expressed the pleasure of the denomination that early Baptist history was thus being preserved, and Dr. H. W. Battle, of Charlottesville, was grateful that such men as Jeremiah Moore could exert a definite influence at a critical period in American history.

The pastor, Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, presided and expressed his joy that they the early martyrs of the faith were at last given their proper place. He declared that Alexandria was in many respects a city of beginnings and that markers of historic points would soon be placed over the city.

Others who took part in the ceremonies were Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, at whose suggestion the memorial was placed; Rev. Dr. E. W. Winfrey, of Culpeper, whose church stands upon the spot where James Ireland, it founder, had been imprisoned; Dr. J. M. Pilcher, of Petersburg, president of the Baptist Historical Society of Virginia, and Dr. W. F. Watson, of Alexandria, a former pastor.

The address of Rev. Dr. McGlothlin was thrillingly interesting to those who are acquainted with the struggles for our present constitution. There are strong evidences that Jeremiah Moore's neighbors, George Washington and George Mason, were in strong sympathy with his brave stand against the English establishment, and may have secured the services of Patrick Henry, at his trial before Justice Broadwater. Certain it is the sites of the old Colonial jail and court house on Market Square, will continue to be sacred shrines to every lover of liberty in America and the world.

Miss Florence S. Berryman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Berryman, the farmer cartoonist for the Washington Star staff, pulled the cord which revealed the beautiful marble mural tablet. An interesting incident was the display of a large group picture of the pastors of the First Baptist Church, from its beginning in 1803. One of the speakers remarked that it was a notable company, and contained a number of names of distinguished leaders. Many visitors came over from Washington, delegates to the convention from many southern states, and Representative R. Walton Moore and a number of descendants of Jeremiah Moore.

Altogether the affair will be long remembered in the history of the church and the city

Jeremiah Moore founded the First Baptist Church in 1803 and was its first pastor.

The tablet bears the following:

To the memory of Jeremiah Moore. Baptist Pioneer and Leader, 1745-1815

Imprisoned several times in Alexandria for "preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ without license."

Jail and court house located on the present Market Square.

Founder of First Baptist Church.

SHAFT TO WAR HERO

A massive marble shaft has been placed in the ancestral lot in Christ Church Cemetery of a well-known hero with the following inscription:

"D. A. Windsor Snowden, 1889-1919." Many friends of the deceased have never learned how he won the Le Guerre decoration that was bestowed upon him by the French Government, as he was too modest a man to claim personal glory, When the fighting was the fiercest he volonteered to take an ambulance from the safety line and go out to the battle lines to rescue the wounded. In performing this task it was necessary for him to pass through space filled with hundreds of dead soldiers, some had been blown to atoms by shell-fire and other means by the Huns. Those rescued were wounded in every conceivable way and many died on their voyage to the hospital, while to make matters worse, the stench caused by the decayed bodies of the dead soldiers was almost unbearable. Truly "Dick" Snowden was a hero of the highest type of manhood, and no doubt when he met He who knows our every act, both good and bad, he was rewarded for his self-sacrifice and good deeds done to his fellow men.

SWANSON'S DOUBLE.

"Yes, it is a fact that when Senator Swanson was governor of Virginia he gave me no end of trouble," said Richard A. McIntyre, of Fauquier, one of the best known members of the legal profession, who attended the meeting of the state bar association. He made this observation to a representatie of the Richmond Journal. "Funny thing happened one day when I came out of his office. A delegation of women awaited a chance to see the governor and I had no knowledge of anything out of the ordinary. I stepped out and was at once surrounded. I tried to explain. Explain nothing. Those women started talking, and I surrendered. I did not know what they were talking about, and I had no chance finally, when one of them stopped to catch her breath, and lost no time in telling them that the governor had considered the matter at length, was disposed to grant their request and that in a few days the formal announcement would be sent them.

"That is where I won—and that is also where I passed one up to the governor, my friend Claude A. Swanson. After I was gone they retired and when they waited for Governor Swanson. They called to see him again and he expressed surprise at their statement that he had promised to do what they asked. They were sure. He was positive. And they were disagreeing all the time. Then the governor realized that the women had seen me and talked with me. Well, for a long time I kept out of his way."

The writer several years ago met Mr. McIntyre on one of the streets of Alexandria. He was accompanied by Hon. C. C. Carlin. We innocently addressed him as Senator Swanson, when Mr. Carlin set us right.

During the early seventies of the past century when Gilbert C. Walker occupied the gubernatorial chair of this state, the late George W. Rock, of this city, was one of the clerks in the Virginia Senate. He closely resembled the Governor, and was often addressed as "your excellency."

PRESENT RAILWAY TIEUP

Pedestrians who strolled in the vicinity of the union passenger station of this city yesterday afternoon saw five freight trains, loaded with vegetables and other perishable products, standing upon the track waiting an opportunity to move into the Potomac Yards. The congestion at this place has been growing for some time, and recently it was stated, one thousand cars were standing on the tracks at this shifting point.

The menace of a breakdown of the transportation service of the country indicated by the action of the railroad executives in calling upon the Interstate Commerce Commission to invoke its emergency powers was emphasized last night by the leaders of the seventeen railroad labor unions.

In a statement made public in Washington coincident with the arrival of the brotherhood chiefs in Chicago to appear before the Railway Labor Board at the resumption of wage hearings, the country is warned that delay in granting increases to two million railroad workers is certain to accentuate the freight congestion which is tieing up traffic centers.

The rail union officials make no threat of strike, but they do not attempt to deny that the situation within their ranks cannot be depended upon. Railroad workers, they say, not only are leaving the employ of the roads to find higher wages elsewhere, but unrest in the ranks is increasing at an alarming rate.

OBSERVATIONS OF MINISTERS

Deprecating "the changing of the pulpit into a public rostrum and the church into a movie 'parlor,'" the Rev. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, of Baltimore, in his sermon yesterday morning declared that there is need of a great spiritual revival among the preachers of today. Among other things he said:

"The average preacher who attends faithfully to his congregation as pastor in looking after the sick and troubled, and who makes careful and prayerful preparation for the pulpit so as to have a blessed and helpful message for his people who assemble for worship, does not have the time to meddle with outside issues and affairs, which, after all, are better handled by men who are better informed and more capable in such matters than is the average preacher. People go to church not to hear a treatise on sociology, war, strikes and the hundred and one other secular topics of the day. People hear this for six days in the week and are sick of the chaff. They go to church on the Lord's day to worship God, to get a message that will bless and help them for the week."

The Rev. Earle Wilfley made a plea for a more vigerous faith at the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, Washington, yesterday morning. He said:

The world will never be won to Christ by the ice cream, good time, picnic sort of Christian work."

"There are bolshevists in the land today because there are straw men in the pulpits." This statement at the First Congregational Church, last night by Dr. Mark A. Matthews, pastor of the largest Protestant church in the United States, raised applause.

ASSAILS HEROES

Hot Words Over Speech Against Elimination of Southerners From Arlington Roster

Sectional strife was revived in the House Saturday during a speech by Representative Upshaw, Democrat, Georgia, protesting against the elimination of the names of Confederate generals from teh roster of fame in the memorial amphitheater at Arlington, dedicated Saturday.

Representative Madden, Republican, Illinois, interrupted the speaker to ask: "Does the gentlemen protest because the loyal American people refuse to pay tribute to men who were traitors to their country in its hour of need?"

The question was greeted with cheers from the Republican side and jeers and catcalls from the minority section.

Representative Upshaw made no answer and Representative Blanton, Democrat, of Texas, immediately demanded that the words be stricken from the record, declaring that the Republican members would not support the sentiment. Amid confusion in the House, the Speaker called for order and finally obtained it. The words were not stricken out.

Representative Upshaw criticized Vice President Marshall for telling the Baptists that they "ought to give your attention to preaching the Gospel and not bother with Congress or the laws." Such a policy, he said, would "emasculate the citizenship of every loyal American who belongs to a church."

GROWING OF HEAD LETTUCE

Growing the plants.—For the spring crop the seeds should be planted in February, either in flats in the house or hotbeds. When the plants are 2 inches high, they should be transplanted with individual pots. These pots should be 3 inches in diameter and can be made of paper. Holes should be made in the bottom of the pot to insure drainage.

For the fall crop the seeds should be sown in seed beds from August 1 to 15.

For the hotbed crop the seeds should be sown in seed beds in September. The seed beds should be located the same as for June planting.

Transplanting lettuce plants into the garden. Lettuce transplanted into cold frames should be placed 1 foot apart in both directions.

Care of the growing crop—During freezing in November and December the lettuce that is headed will need to be covered with a layer of straw 6 inches deep. The straw should be removed as soon as the weather becomes warmer.

Experience is necessary to grow lettuce under glass. A beginner should continually watch the methods used by a person who is growing lettuce successfully under glass. The following suggestions may be helpful: The space between the glass and the surface of the cold frame soil should not be over 12 inches. If this space is too large, the lettuce plants will grow toward the light and not form into compact heads. A piece of shingle 1 1-2 inches wide is a good tool to use to stir the soil about the plants. An occasionally thorough watering is far better than a sprinkling each day. The plants should always be covered in cold nights and mornings or during a drenching rain. They should also be covered during freezing weather. Occasionally during extremely cold weather they will need an additional covering of leaves and of burlap spread over the sash. When lettuce is headed it freezes very easily. At all times leave the frame uncovered.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Another echo of Danville's labor war was heard Wednesday when Charles Harrell, a negro charged with being a labor agent, was fined $150. Having no money, he went to jail. Two hundred negroes were found assembled at the railway station after midnight. The police were called out and their efforts to discover the prime mover of this deportation had such effect on the negroes that when the northbound train pulled in, no more than 30 boarded the train, the others going to their homes. The laborers are being taken, it is admitted, to a New York brick yard. A Danville concern which is suffering the most from these so called raids has threatened retaliation by sending representatives to the brickyard in question in an effort to bring some of the hands to Danville.

Winchester police have thrown out a dragnet for a "woman in black," who has terrified a number of persons, and who Wednesday night attacked two men, Howard Scruggs and Edward N. Anderson, garage employes, while they were returning from work at a late hour. The men were coming through an alley when a tall figure, dressed in deep mourning, suddenly emerged from behind a building and sprang at the men. Scruggs, thinking the figure a man masquerading as a woman, hurled a brick, which was dodged. Scruggs and Anderson took to their heels and made their escape from the presence. A number of people vouch for the story of the tall woman in a fighting mood.

Shrouding herself carefully and placing a dampened cloth over her heart, Miss Audrey Watlington, aged 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Watlington, committed suicide at her home near Straightstone, Pittsylvania county, by shooting herself. It is stated that opposition by her family to her marriage to a young man in Baltimore caused the act. She left a message addressed to him and a long letter to her mother giving her reasons.

Norfolk will be the place of meeting for the next annual convention of the Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, which has just brought its 1920 session to a close in Petersburg. The race was between that city and Roanoke, but the former won by a good majority. Mrs. Cortie E. Miller, of Flint Hill, was elected worthy grand matron of the chapter, Mrs. Mary Abrams, of Norfolk, was made grand treasurer, while Mrs. Emma Lee Gray, of Norfolk, was selected as associate grand conductress. Mrs. Emma C. Clement, of Norfolk, was made grand marshal. The convention was one of the most successful ones in the history of the grand chapter.

Two skeletons, said by physicians to be those of a man and a woman, have been found in a cave situated on the estate of Frank G. Carpenter, the noted traveler and correspondent, near Bluemont, and officials of Loudoun County are endeavoring to obtain clues. Besides the bones were found a pistol, eight glass eyes, pieces of brown cloth dress and a blue cloth suit and a set of false teeth. The cave in which the skeletons were found is at the side of a high bluff of rock, and is accessible only by hard and difficult climbing.

Resenting the slur cast upon Virginia by the exclusion of the names of General Robert E. Lee and other leaders of the Confederacy from the Arlington Amphitheatre Memorial William A. Stuart, State commander of the American Legion, declined to name any representative of the legion from this State to attend the dedication exercises.

Word has been received in Lynchburg of the injury in an automobile accident at Bryn Mawr, Pa., of Mrs. L. M. Willis, former principal of the Chatham Episcopal Institute, and the death of her daughter, formerly Miss Catherine Willis, who accompanied her in the automobile. Mrs. Willis recently objected so strenuously to an action of the president of the school as to tender her resignation, which was followed almost immediately by that of every member of the faculty, the point in dispute being the advisability of a lecture on Harriet Beecher Stowe being delivered before the student body of the school.

Little, if any damage has been done by frost the past few nights in the big commercial apple orchards of the Winchester district, it is stated by growers, many of whom have smudge pots in readiness for use in event the temperature takes a sudden drop. The next two weeks will be a critical period, as frequent frosts often occur until the first of June.

EIGHT KILLED IN COLLISION

Inbound Southern Pacific Cars Crash Into Outbound Near Portland, Oregon

Portland, Oregon, May 17. Eight persons were killed outright and seventy others injured, seven seriously, when two electric trains on the Southern Pacific Railroad collided head on at Bertha Station, ten miles west of here Monday. All the dead and injured were from this vicinity.

The accident was due to disregard of orders by the crew of the incoming train, according to G. W. Martin, assistant superintendent of the Southern Paicfic. The train is said to have had orders to pass the outbound train at Bertha Station. Instead of stopping there, it passed on through at a high speed.

As the train neared a curve beyond the station limits, which swings around a high bank, the outbound train from Portland came in sight, 200 or 300 feet away. They meet head on.

The forward car of the fast inbound train bored through the vestibule of the forward car of the outbound train and plunged on through into a coach filled with men, women and children. Virtually every person in the car not killed outright was injured.

DEAD MAN AT WHEEL

New York Taxi Driver Succumbs to Heart Attack While Driving

New York, May 17.—After running for more than four blocks in the heart of the city with a dead man at the steering wheel a taxicab plunged into a stone wall skirting Central Park after narrowly escaping collision with other automobiles.

William Sell, aged 47, a chauffeur of the taxi, was seized with an acute heart attack. As he expired, his hands slipped from the steering wheel and his body sank forward in the car, throwing such pressure on the foot accelerator that the machine rushed forward at a high rate of speed.

Warnings from passersby who realized the condition of the driver saved many pedestrians from being run down.

Eels spawn only in the deep sea.

After Any Illness The Blood Is Weak

If You Get Well Slowly, Try Building Up Your Blood

It's Blood That Feeds the Body

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich, Red Blood, Changes Pale Complexions to Bloom of Health

A serious illness, even a cold that is hard to shake off, can reduce the blood to a weak, watery condition which keeps the normal strength and vigor from coming back.

This poor physical condition brings on a helpless, discouraged mental condition which rich, red blood can restore.

Pure blood should be rich in iron which Nature supplies to some extent in food. But often through faulty digestion or improper diet you don't get the needed iron, and your blood, on which your health depends, grows weaker and weaker.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood, increases the red blood cells and supplies the ingredients that bring a quick response in vigor, vitality, and fine color.

Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists—Advt.

They use the greatest care and skill,
And promptly all their orders fill.

JEREMIAH MOORE TABLET UNVEILED

Washington city 1802; First Alexandria, 1803; and Second Church, Washington, 1810."

Rev. Dr. McLaughlin said in part:

"The subject of this sketch was born June 7, 1746, in Prince William Co., Va., and died at his home at "Moorefield," in Fairfax Co., February 24, 1815. His life spans one of the most significant periods in human history. It was the great formative era in the history of the United States, and Mr. Moore's life was spent at the heart of the circle of forces which were making our country what it is. He lived in the period in which the Indians along the Atlantic seaboard were finally subdued. He saw the English defeat the French on the Plains of Abraham, thus driving them from the North American continent; he lived through the agitation which led to the Declaration of Independence and the successful prosecution of the Revolutionary war; he saw the period of uncertainty which finally culminated in the adoption of the Federal Constitution, he lived through the struggle for the assurance of religious freedom by the adoption of the first amendment to the constitution; he saw the purchase of Louisiana by which the boundaries of the United States were extended to the crest of the Reckies, and lived through the second war with Great Britain. He thus saw in our country the establishment of political freedom and absolute religious liberty, both protected by one of the greatest political instruments ever drawn by the genius of man Mr. Moore was baptized in the Baptist faith by Davis Thomas and later became a preacher and continued such for the remainder of his life, forty-five years. Three times he was taken in custody by officers of the Crown for preaching. He preached in different states, but principally in Virginia and Maryland. At various times in his life he was pastor of Difficult Run, Black Lick and Frying Pan Churches in Fairfax county and of the church in Alexandria. He preached his last sermon at Centreville in Fairfax county shortly before his death. Mr. Moore also was a writer of some distinction among the Baptist preachers of his time." Concluding he said: "In these labors, Mr. Moore was happily not called upon to stand alone but he was ever a ready and effective champion who never faltered and whose name must forever remain one of the treasures of the church if Alexandria and the Baptists of Virginia."

UNABLE TO KNOCK OUT VETO

Majority Lacks 28 Votes of Enough to Override President's Action

Washington, May 15.—The Republican majority in the House yesterday failed by a margin of 28 votes to override President Wilson's veto of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. The vote was 170 to 127. On the basis of members present and voting, 198 votes would have been required to constitute the two thirds majority necessary to override the veto.

Only four Democrats bolted the President. They were Evans, Nebraska; Gallivan and Olney, Massachusetts, and Sisson, Mississippi.

The bill now goes back to the Appropriations Committee for reconsideration of the provision to which the President objected. This section would have prohibited the printing or lithographing of any government publication without specific authority from the joint Congressional Committee on Printing.

The hour's debate on the motion to override the veto was marked by bitter resentment and defense of the President's rebuke of Congress. The President's rebuke of Congress, in addition, would muzzle executive officials with a "censorship" regulated by the Printing Committee.

BURN 50 BARRACKS

Twenty Tax Offices Visited and Papers Destroyed—Seven Courts Attacked

Dublin, May 17.—Fifty police barracks were destroyed in the raids Wednesday night, according to an official statement issued from Dublin castle yesterday eevning. Twenty income tax offices were raided and the documents burned and seven courthouses were also attacked.

Two mail cars and one mail train were held up and official papers taken from them. One man was killed in the outskirts of Dublin, where barracks were being burned.

The Rev. T. G. Wilkinson, one of the canons of Down Cathedral of Down-Patrick, was shot and critically wounded while pursuing raiders on the street. The houses of two newspaper editors were raided, and one anti-Sinn Fein editor was tarred and feathered.

AGAINST DRY LAW

Not 20 Votes for Measure in Closed Session of Senate, Says Marshall

Richmond, Va., May 17.—Asserting that it was his opinion that the Constitution of the United States should be preserved with less tinkering with these organic laws of the nation, Vice President Thomas R. Marshall was enthusiastically received here yesterday by the Virginia State Bar Association, before which he made an address.

Discussing constitutional amendments that, according to his opinion, "have not contributed to the peace and good order of society and have brought a very large measure of evil to the republic," he said that if prohibition had been considered by the Senate in secret session behind closed doors not twenty votes would have been cast for it. He predicted that in the future the country would be faced by the question of government of law or of men. Today, he asserted, only two men are consulted in public matters. They are Samuel Gompers and Judge E. H. Gary. He appealed to the members of the bar association to again resume their leadership of American thought.

At the conclusion of his address the association went on record as favoring the nomination of Mr. Marshall for the Presidency of the United States.

ASSAILS COSTS

Richmond Attorney for Virginia Certificate Holders Files Brief

Richmond, Va., May 15.—A brief was filed yesterday in the West Virginia debt litigation by R. R. Florence, representing about $10,000 of face value of debt certificates which were not held in the pool formed by Brown Brothers and Company, bankers, of New York. Florence said that he merely asked permission to scrutinize the various schedules of expenses and allowances filed with Special Commissioner Robert E. Scott.

It was not his purpose, he said, to object to reasonable and proper compensation for the expenses incurred in the litigation, including attorney's fees, etc., but his clients did not think the fund paid over by West Virginia should be dissipated in excessive allowances. He especially doubts whether it is proper to make allowances in sums ranging from $50,000 to $100,000 to members of the Virginia debt commission, who, Florence asserts were a political body appointed by the legislature, performing little actual duties and who should, if paid at all, be reimbursed by the State, Florence is a Richmond attorney.

Special Commissioner Scott is making efforts to have all independent certificates deposited, in order that the expenses of the litigation may be equitably distributed. It will be some months before he makes a report to the court on the allowances to be made.

The finger print system of identification has been used from very early times.

PROPOSAL PASSES SENATE

Knox Resolution Repeals Congress' Action Declaring State of War

With few thrills and no hitch in the prearranged program the Senate adopted Saturday, 43 to 38, the Republican resolution declaring the state of war with Germany and Austria-Hungary at an end. The measure was in the form of a substitute for the peace resolution recently adopted by the House, which dealt with Germany alone. The two proposals will be adjusted in conference beginning next week, the result will be indorsed by both houses and the final resolution will be sent to the the President for signature.

That the President will veto it is a foregone conclusion, unchallenged by any speaker during debate in the House or Senate. It is uncertain when the final resolution will reach the White House, but Republican leaders anticipate no difficulty in putting through a conference draft with little delay. The Senate vote gave the majority of five predicted by Democratic leaders for the Knox substitute.

Chicago, May 17.—In four hours yesterday Horace T.
